Dr. Muhammad Zaman is currently Senior Research Fellow at Maison de la Création et de l'Innovation (MaCI), Université Grenoble Alpes (France) under the International Excellence in the Humanities Programme (2026). His fellowship includes research mobility as UGA Visiting Fellow with Membership of Common Room at St. Cross College, Oxford University. He has also been invited as Visiting Scholar to the Institute of Criminology, hosted by Professor Loraine Gelsthorpe, in connection with the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation Georg Forster Fellowship. He is a tenured Professor of Sociology at Quaid-i-Azam University, Islamabad, where he founded the Department of Sociology (2014) and the School of Sociology (2022). He earned his PhD from Leipzig University (Germany) and completed postdoctoral fellowships at the University of Warsaw (Erasmus Mundus) and the University of Zurich (Swiss Excellence Scholarship). His research focuses on childhood, youth, kinship systems, governance under scarcity, and road safety. He is developing the theoretical framework of "Optimum Use of Existing Resources (OUER)" as a sociology of adequacy in resource constrained context. He has authored three books and over forty peer-reviewed publications and has secured major competitive research grants funded by HEC Pakistan, DAAD and DFG Germany. Beyond academia, he regularly contributes expert commentary on social and policy issues to national media platforms including Pakistan Television Corporation and Hum News, and writes op-eds for the Daily Times. Dr Muhammad Zaman was listed among the world's top 2% scientists by PLOS Biology (2020) and received the HEC Best Young Researcher Award (2021).
